1. The UDB detachment in the Belgrade railroad station, which up to now has consisted of from 3 to 5 officers, will soon be increased by 20 additional UDB officers. The increase is expected momentarily. The new officers will be given the task of controlling all trains moving in the Belgrade rail district. They will check passengers and passenger luggage, and will make frequent surprise searches and inspections. Until now, trains were inspected by ordinary police. These special measures reportedly are being introduced because of the extraordinary international situation. 50X1-HUM
2. The Wagon Lits Agency in Belgrade, located on Kolarceva ulica, is under orders to record personal data on all Yugoslav travellers who buy sleeping car tickets. The names of these persons must be turned over to the UDB detachment at the Belgrade railroad station before the persons concerned board the train. This practice was not enforced in the past.
3. Conductors in Wagon Lits cars have received an order from the main office to the effect that they are to take possession of all personal identification, such as identity cards or passports, of all persons entering their respective pullman cars, and that these documents are not to be returned until the person has reached his destination. This applies to foreigners as well as to Yugoslavs.
